JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

Eighteen (18) months on counts one and two of the Two-Count Indictment. This term consists of 18 months on each of counts one and two to be served concurrently to one another.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three (3) years. This term consists of three years on each of counts one and two of the Indictment, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation Office, General Order 05-02, and General Order 01-05, including the three special conditions delineated in General Order 01-05.
2. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
3. The defendant shall truthfully and timely file and pay taxes owed for the years of conviction, and shall truthfully and timely file and pay taxes during the period of community supervision. Further, the defendant shall show proof to the Probation Officer of compliance with this order.

4. The defendant shall not be employed in any capacity wherein he has custody, control, or management of his employer's funds.
5. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.
6. The defendant shall apply monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments, and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding Court-ordered financial obligation.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $1,074,223.49 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A.

The defendant shall make nominal monthly payments of at least 10% of defendant's gross monthly income but not less than $500, whichever is greater, during the term of supervision, which shall begin 30 days after the date of this judgment. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the Court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

The defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $1,074,223.49 as set forth in a separate victim list prepared by the probation office. The amount of restitution ordered shall be paid as set forth on the separate victim list prepared by the probation office which this Court adopts and which reflects the Court's determination of the amount of restitution due to each victim. The victim list, which shall be forwarded to the fiscal section of the clerk's office, shall remain confidential to protect the privacy interests of the victims.

The defendant shall be held jointly and severally liable with co-defendant Karen Burdett for the amount of restitution ordered in this judgment. The victims' recovery is limited to the amount of their loss and the defendant's liability for restitution ceases if and when the victims receive full restitution.

Interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

USA vs. RONALD BURDETTDocket No.: CR 13-754-GAF-01

All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine in addition to restitution.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender himself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on or before 12 noon, May 2, 2014. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time, to the United States Marshal located at:

Roybal Federal Building
255 East Temple Street
Los Angeles, California 90012

Bond exonerated upon surrender.

Defendant advised he has waived his right to appeal.

The Court recommends to the Bureau of Prisons that defendant be housed at Lompoc Federal Correctional Institution.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
